IS FATE OF DESTINY TROUBLES FOREVER?

Human life's progress is always work in progress and demands a lot of research. For some of us life would be peaceful, quiet, easy and happy. Is it so for the rest of us, is a question on hand. When we give it a thought we discover that each life is aligned in a certain pattern. For some it's a tumultuous path; some seem to be floating in the sky; some seem to dive deep and fetch pearls; and some of the rest are in a deep communion with the divine and are inseparable from him in their happiness. They not only believe they are happy but they are genuinely happy. Some only create an illusion that they have attained divinity. Such illusory lives would only cheat the persons as well as the rest. Why does this happen? How does this happen? What is the force behind all of them? Could it be circumstances or related to birth? Such questions with no answers often pop up in our minds. We take efforts to find answers for them. We seem to strive for it constantly.

This leads us in search of mahans. Some of us keep visiting temples and offer prayers. Everyone seems to have plenty of unfulfilled desires and needs. Some needs are required but some of them are futile and are unrequited until death. When victories pile on us our hearts reach a crescendo of happiness but does it last forever? Of course not! Similarly if we were to be accosted with failures constantly and are deemed to live in a desert of dreariness then life becomes hell. Victory and failure must be well balanced and such a balanced life is what will help us live peacefully.

To attain that well balanced life do we believe we have the prowess in our hands? Is it in the hands of the navagrahas? Or is it in the hands of destiny or fate as we call it....this demands a lot of thought. Only when we think and research on the subject we will stumble on the reasons for this framework. The research will confirm that the power of fate is indomitable. Even in our own epics there are instances of fate playing its games. Those instances in the epics are not far from reality! For example....Rama went to the forest because of his own preference or by the hand of destiny? The question will be answered as the hand of destiny. Ravana abducted Sita only because of fate. Eventually Rama became the king and a pattabishekam was conducted because of the hands of fate. The troubles that he faced during his life are examples of how men should face their lives.

'One who lives well in this world will be respected akin to the gods in heaven'

This is Valluvars kural. One who is born in this world must uphold dharma. If he leads such a life then he can fight against the forces of fate, however strong they maybe. He will emerge victorious in the end by fighting against all odds.

Though Nala was a great emperor, he had to renounce his kingdom and become an exemplary cook because he was bit by the snake Karkodaga who was the representative of Lord Saturn is what history tells us. To this day we appreciate good culinary skills with the tag-'Nalabagam'. While he was a king one cannot dispute that he did not possess any skills or talents. Even after he was denounced of his kingdom and became a cook his skills and talents did not desert him. Talents don't hide or die.

We are able to assess the powers of fate based on the positions of the navagrahas during the time of our birth. Is it possible to change or win over fate? You can win, you can change; you can even reduce the intensity of fate! There are ways and means to do it. Mahans are around to show us the right path and guide us. We need to choose that path. We need to have strength of mind to pursue the path. We need to be determined to do so. We need an inclination towards that. If we have all these qualities we can team them to fight against fate. If we do not strive to do so failure will be the result of our life.

How much ever you try you feel that you are not finding a solution. Even visiting temples does not help. We are depressed, frustrated and devastated. In such a shattered, broken, exhausted situation, with no solutions ahead we tend to excessively stress ourselves. To such unquenched souls the haven on earth is the Madamabakkam 18 siddhar Shaktipeedam. Sadguru Sri Seshadri swamikal assured me that- for all the seeking souls, depressed souls, this will be the haven or asylum of mental peace. He insisted that if I took the effort I shall succeed in it. What has been destined has fruited today. But the troubles we faced in the intermitent days cannot be described. How can one achieve without facing failures and troubles? Experts who alter the hands of destiny are our 18 siddharas who reside in our temple. Also paramathma Guruvayoorappan and Akilandakodi Brahmanda Nayaki, my Mother, who has been graciously made of green Granite Sri chakra Maha Meru, Lalitha parameswari is present in all her glorious splendor. This indeed is a blessing! This can be claimed as an achievement!

Chitragupta is here doling his blessings. People who have been trying to find relief from the dhoshas in their horoscopes by travelling in all directions but have been unable to get such relief can participate in the special Chitragupta pooja conducted every pournami or amavasya day at our temple to find their fates rewritten. They will find victory and endless mental peace. There are many miracles and instances taking place in our Shaktipeedam constantly. The 18 Siddhas function as the navagrahas and continue to shower their blessings. As per the directions of the Mahan the following are conducted regularly in our temple premises- Naga dhosha parihara, Kala sarpa dhosha parihara, Thulabara prarthana for Sri Guruvayoorappan, Pournami Special pooja, Amavasya arul vaku pooja.

Shakthi peetam has turned into a huge parihara sithala and a place which can alter and rewrite one's destiny. Your fate will change and your troubles will diminish. You will reach an untroubled state. You will not fall into the traps of destiny. Life will be trouble free. Like a freshly bloomed flower we shall be blessed with the newness and vigor of life thanks to the benediction of the Siddha Empire. Have faith! Let's pray and stay blessed and prosper!

EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Readers, If each one of us looks back on time and do a little bit of self-introspection; we realize that over the years, the only constant factor in every phase of our lives has been CHANGE! Hence initially in 2015, when the Mumbai chapter members were deciding on the venue to perform the Annual SSSSBT 2016 Havan, most of us were initially apprehensive when MULUND was proposed; since this was a new destination and a change from the past!

From Gautam Buddha to Emperor Ashoka to Mahatma Gandhi have all become iconic only because a moment or a situation or a learning dawned on them and that changed the entire paradigm of their existence, which is now written about in the history books! Similarly each one of us changes with time and situation in everyday walks of our lives; be it in home, office or in our social circuit. For eg. a girl becomes a woman once she is married and as she enters a new household, a boy becomes a man when he starts working, a woman becomes a mother when she gives birth to a child; simple everyday changes in the life of a common individual.

While Mulund as a destination was favorable from the point of view of the South Indian Community's strong presence, conducting our annual havan for the 1st time in a new destination always had its own share of inhibitions. Through our previous experience, we all decided to set aside the grey areas and work on the factors in favor of us wholeheartedly! All through the process; from suggesting the new location: Mulund to building our confidence w.r.t. the location, one force constantly gave us the reassurance that things would work out just fine it was none other than Mr. Ravindranath our Mumbai chapter's head who had the good fortune of being associated with the Mulund Bhajana Samaj for last 18 years thru his Shashta Preeti (Ayyapa Preparations) Soon both SSSSBT members & Mulund Bhajana Samaj were able to develop a good bonding & we jointly worked on the project in a corporate manner with a policy of: "Management By Objective" An event irrespective of its scale is always dependent on many non-controllable factors like: weather conditions, Permissions, security threat or non-compliance and most importantly the CROWD. Even after your best efforts if the crowd does not come, your event is a flop, irrespective of all factors considered. Hence when the D-day arrived: 14th February 2016, all we could do was hope for the crowd to come in good numbers! The successful result of any event is a culmination of factors and co-ordination of members handling various portfolios, like the PR, the communication, the logistics, the materials handling, the stage set-up, the production, the catering, the cook, the purchases, the valdeeham (the

Enchanting Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar

Mystery shrouds the lives of people on this earth and they seek deliverance from the sufferings and pains in their activities that they had however pursued in their own choice. They feel disenchanting and disappointed with their failures and miseries chasing them. But the moment they get to know there is one Guru, who can show them the way for righteous living with peace, self and property to their content coming their way, their minds open up with faithful optimism. Be whatever their calling, they seek refuge in the guru who then guides them through with proper preparation, atonement and fulfillment. When one realizes Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar is around our fears melt away and feel liberated to face life with confidence, courage and conviction. To invoke Him in our hearts as the Garbhagruham and our bodies as the temple. (This is one basic tenet of the Siddhar philosophy), here is the Dhyana slokam for Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar who is like a father:

*Appaa Endru Adi Thuvangi Achaitthavarakku
Thappamul Aal Thuvam Deiva Sigamanyai!
Eppavaman Pariyamul Ungal Thiruppuadam Pattinam
Anjal Vendru Abhayam Alippai Kanjamalai Swamiye!*

While much is not known about the origin and life of this Siddhar it is believed that he hailed from north India and settled in the south part of India to spread the glory of Siddhars. He is said to have gone to China and later attained Samadhi at Salem in Tamil Nadu, though affirmation is being researched. He was the Guru, it is said, for Thiru Maha Bhoga Siddhar who also learnt magical skills from Him. Naturally Sri Kanchamalai is reported to have gained all special powers, prowess and philosophical instruments from his guru Sri Thirumoolar, Himself an accomplished saint. He is believed to have been born in the hills and lived in the caves. He traversed the universe across the space with his powers, beholding all the worlds around. Medical herbs were used for the dresses he wore. Apart from one being a naturalist, He was very fond of birds.

Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar was proficient in the Siddha philosophy, use of medicinal herbs, alchemy and mystic powers. His inscriptions were expressed in his notable works called Kanchamalai Siddhar Kalai Kyaanam and Siddhar Padaigal. They are source of inspiration, instruction and intuition for his disciples.

Such is the greatness and prowess of Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar that our worship of him will simplify our lives. In a serene place with sacred atmosphere, the Siddhar is worshipped especially on a Friday, with his picture duly mounted and decorated on a platform smeared with turmeric and painted with kolams. Then Siddhar's portrait is beautified with fragrant garlands and flowers; He is adorned with white colored clothes; one offers archana (praises in honour) with vibhuthi green leaves (pachilai), lotus and jasmine flowers. Vibhuti or sacred ash is also used for the archana. Placed around are brilliantly lighted lamps, called 'kuthuvilakku,' symbolizing the spread of peace, wisdom, love and spiritual uplift. This worship to Sri Kanjamalai Siddhar also means paying obeisance to Lord Shukra or Venus Planet, signifying prosperity. The Siddhar's Pooja helps us in earning rare benefits and more boons so as to dispel any negativity or malefic influence, including that caused by the navagrahas, especially Venus. Chanting the sacred '16 Pottrigal,' and then reciting with the Moola mantra, "Om Kleem Shree Kanchamalai Siddhar Swamiye Pottri," a 108 times, the Siddhar is offered fruits, milk, cooked rice along with juice of betel mixed with honey. The worship is concluded with the Deepa Aaradhana, the lighting of the lamp, camphor and incenses and falling at the feet of Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar (prostration) expressing intense faith for his blessings. This will dispel any troubles one faces and is sure to bring peace, progress and prosperity.

His Life showed us that He is deemed the son of the mountains and is treated as the embodiment of embryo – the essence of life. He resides invisibly in the Bheejakshara Om Kleem, said to represent energy in the syllables and visibly as much in the deep caves. This He represents both the states of sthoola and sookshma. Sri Kanjamalai Siddhar has the power to roam in the universal space and He is worshipped as one who is fond of transportation, movement and migration in the worlds to bless his devotees who pray with medicinal herbs and fragrant items like flowers incense and scents. He is equally fond of honey and betel leaves (thamboolam) Resplendent with his body having a golden hue, living on the mount of gold, the Siddhar is adorned with dresses made of herbal leaves. Considered as the personification of progeny of the Divine Universal Mother, Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar is the one who has conquered the pulls and pressures of kama and krodha- the influence of senses. He is always saluted and worshipped by kiliyal -parrots! And, he is delighted with faithful offers of medicinal herbs as part of our worship that he is pleased to grant us all the biggest boon of liberation.

In a worldly sense, what does the prayer that we offer to Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar give us? There is resolution of our conflicts and confusion leading to cordial relations – between husband and wife; between women, removing problems amongst them; between the daughter-in-law and mother-in-law. His worship removes the ill-effects of Venus in the natal chart while mental disorders, problems in the private parts are also cured. Delays to marriages are overcome. The devotees are blessed with vehicles and various other wishes of worldly matters. The main thing is that the Siddhar's worship brings to us the blessings and grace of Goddess Mahalakshmi who grants all prosperity while bestowing peace of mind. Sri Kanchamalai Siddhar is therefore omnipresent for us seeking liberation and guidance in this birth. Let's intensify our prayers to uplift us in this world.

What is total surrender?

This is a beautiful story about Krishna's flute. Everyday Krishna would go in the garden and say to all the plants, "I love you". The plants were very happy and responded saying "Krishna, we love you too". One day Krishna rushed quickly into the garden very alarmed. He went to the bamboo plant and the bamboo plant asked, "Krishna, what's wrong?"

Krishna said "I have something to ask you, but it is very difficult". The bamboo said "Tell me: if I can, I will give it to you". So Krishna said "I need your life. I need to cut you. The bamboo thought for a while and then said "You don't have any other choice. You don't have any other way". Krishna said, "No, no other way". And it said "OK" and gave himself up. So Krishna cut the bamboo n made holes in it, and each time, he carved the holes, the bamboo was crying in pain ... Krishna made a beautiful flute out of it and this flute was with him all the time. 24 hours a day, it was with Krishna. Even the Gopis were jealous of the flute. They said, "Look, Krishna is our Lord, but yet we get to spend only some time with him. He wakes up with you, He sleeps with you, all the time you are with him". Gopis asked the bamboo, "Tell us your secret. What secret do you have, that the Lord treasures you so much?" "And the bamboo said "The secret is that, I gave myself up, and he did whatever was right for me, in the process I had to undergo a lot of pain. And the Lord does whatever he wants with me, whenever he wants with me and however he wants with me. I have just become His instrument". So this is complete surrender: where God can do whatever He wants with you whenever He wants, as He wants. Trust Him completely and have faith in Him and always think you are in His hands ... what can go wrong??

This is Samarpan or Surrender.

Through Mahaan's blessings and under the able guidance & leadership of our Guruji KVLN Sharma, who always gave us the confidence to stretch beyond our preconceived limitations, made the event successful as there were a good flow of people from as early as 7am onwards. Now when we look back at the event, we are all thankful for the change in the venue to Mulund. This simple change in adjusting our mindset to a new situation, circumstance, venue, people, office, environment...etc. is a part of our daily lives and the earlier we adapt to the CHANGE the better for us! The last but not the least, we would like to make a special mention of the Selfless service with ever smiling face and kind cooperation and support extended by all the committee members of the Mulund

Bajana Samaj.

Our Drawing Classes for the children & young at heart with artistic inclinations are being held regularly every Sunday at our Trust's office at Bindra Complex, and we continue to do annadanam since 7th March 2015. Dasa Maha Vidya- The 10 Wisdom Goddesses

This is the third article in the series of Dasa Maha Vidya or the ten wisdom goddesses. The first was about Kali or Kal, which is Time manifest and unmanifest. Her counterpart is Chhinn Mastu, where one goes beyond one's head and ego. The second is about the divine sound "Om or Tara, who helps people to cross over samsara. Her counterpart is the spoken word Matangi, who represents all the forms of art, poetry, music etc. The third one is "Lalitha Tripurasundari" and her counterpart is "Kamalatmika".

Lalitha Tripurasundari:

Sundari is divine beauty personified and grace. The beauty that arises from absolute bliss that enables one to see the entire creation in oneself and feeling one with the entire Universe. This form is widely worshipped in South. In Brahmada Purana, as a conversation between Sage Agastya and Lord Hayagreeva, her qualities are described along with her 1000 names as "Lalitha Sahasranama". Aadi Shankara has paid tribute to her by his most brilliant poetic work known as "Soundarya Lahari" having 100 stokas. She is Nijaruna prabhapura majjadbrahmada mandala" - The one who illuminates the whole universe with her radiance.

Only when one's awareness is awakened after sadhana, one is able to attain this absolute bliss allowing the nectar (Amrit) from Sahasrara to flow to each and every cell of the body. Thus she is the awakening of Kundalini Shakti that normally remains in Mooladhara and Swadhishtan chakras as a coiled up snake.

"Tripura" means the three worlds - Bhoo Bhuva Swaha. At individual level it shows "Jagrut", "Swapna" and "sushupti" stages meaning the waking dream and deep sleep stages, relating to mind and heart. They also mean Brahma, Vishnu and Rudra or physical, astral and causal bodies. These stages indicate matter, energy and thought.

Lalitha - The playful - The universe is created and destroyed again and again as a play of divine mother, so she is called Lalitha. She makes us aware that we are not separate but part of the whole universe and that true happiness lies in being one with the whole creation. A drop of water falling from the sky is insignificant, small limited and helpless but once it falls in the sea; it becomes part of mighty sea, the sea itself!

Raja Rajeshwari : She is also known as Raja Rajeshwari, the supreme ruler. She is also known as Bala, a young girl of 16 years (Shodashi), ever playful and her seer is Dakshinamoorthy, who imparts knowledge to elderly sages through silence, meditation form Radiating brightness of the rising sun, having four arms that hold a bow of sugarcane (symbolic of mind) five arrows of flowers

(five sense of organs) and a noose and a hook, sitting on a cot made of "Pancha Pretas". She bestows blessings (Pancha pretasana seena, Pancha Brahma Swaroopini - Lalitha Sahasranama) The five Pretas are Brahma the creator (earth element), Vishnu the nourisher (water element), Rudra - the destroyer (fire element), Easha the concealer (Air element) and Sadasiva the liberator (Akash element). Without her Shakti, all these five devatas are only pretas but once her energy starts flowing through them, they become "Pancha Brahmas". Her mantra is Panchadasakshari Mantra consisting of three lines and fifteen letters as under:

1. Ka-E-I-La-Hrim - Head of Devi-Vagbhava koota, source of Gyan Shakti.
2. Ha sa Ka Ha la Hreem - Portion from head to hips- Kamaraja koota, Iccha Shakti.
3. Sa-ka-la-Hrim - Portion from hips down Shakthi koota - Kriya Shakti Adding Srim to the above, it becomes shodashi (mantra of 16 letters) Her yantra for worship is Sree chakra, a geometrical form of Universal energy.

Kamalatmika

She is the 10th of Dasa Maha Vidya, and is complimentary to Sundari, Kamal or lotus flower is very sacred not only in India, but to the whole of South Asia. Though born from mud and slush, lotus stands pure, unaffected by the back ground, showing how we can win over our short comings. Kamala, a form of Lakshmi is the most worshipped form of Devi as she bestows all boons to her seekers, such as wealth, beauty, strength, fertility, love and devotion. By granting our external wishes, she leads us slowly to the inner spirituality. Sundari the inner bliss and Kamala slowly leads us there through outside happiness. Being the consort of Vishnu, the nourisher, Kamala nourishes us through material benefits. She can also become Kali and punish us if we misuse our gains. She is of golden colour like rising sun, and sits on a lotus. She holds two lotuses in two hands, bestows boon with third, and shows protection by the fourth. The two elephants are shown pouring water over her and sometimes she is shown with pot of gold. Water is symbol of spiritual grace and gold richness of perception. Even Buddhists in Tibet worship her in this form but call her Tara. Her Mantra is Shrim. The seer of this mantra is sage Brighu. Brighu represents Vishnu, the nourisher and Sage Aangirasa represents fire and is a form of Shiva. Most Indians trace their ancestry to these two sages. In Bhagavat Gita, Bhagwan says, "Maharshinam Brighuraham" (I am sage Brighu among sages - Chapter 10). All forms of devotional worship like offering flowers, incense, Prasad etc. and also lighting lamps etc. are ways of worshipping Kamala.

The Saintry Trinity of Last Century

The two famous temple towns, Kanchipuram and Tiruvannamalai, have been enriched and glorified by the association of three of the many saints who blessed this land in the last century. The passage below brings out the connection between the trinity of Saints and Sri Maha Periyava's proverbial Greatness of Humility. As Kanchi is associated with Sri Maha Periyava, Tiruvannamalai takes one to Ramana Maharshi and Seshadri Swamigal. Seshadri Swamigal linked both the towns and the saints, Seshadri Swamigal, well known as the "Saint with a golden hand", was born in Kanchi and lived in Tiruvannamalai till Jan 4th, 1929. Anusham was the star of birth and siddhi for Sri Maha Periyava and Hastham was the star of birth and siddhi for Seshadri Swamigal!

In the town of Tiruvannamalai, Ramana was stoned and teased by kids. Ramana sought refuge in an underground site in Pthalalanga cave in the temple where, he was in a trance and was festering with sores from insectbites. Seshadri Swamigal helped in bringing him out, nursed him like a mother and pronounced to the world his greatness. People used to call Seshadri Swamigal, the older by ten years as the "elder Seshadri" (Anna) and Sri Ramana as the "younger Seshadri" (Thambi). They used to refer Sri Seshadri as Mother Parvathi, Sri Ramana as Skanda (Lord Subramanya) and with Periyava as Chandramouleeswara, the trinity gets completed!

Seshadri Swamigal and Ramana Maharshi (Seshadri Swamigal actually arrived at Arunachala, six years earlier than Ramana Maharshi) were contemporaries. Many a time, Ramana spoke Seshadri's words and the latter spoke Ramana's. Strangely enough, in December 2013, the Aradhana day of Seshadri Swamigal was on the 26th in between 22nd for Ramana Maharshi and 29th for Periyava! Seshadri Swamigal's miracles are many. Vallimalai Swamigal of "Thiruppugazh" fame sought and was blessed by Seshadri Swamigal on the advice of Ramana Maharshi who ordered him to go down the Hill and look for Seshadri Swamigal to be his mentor!

Here is an excerpt from Sri Maha Periyava:

Sri Bharanidharan: I was writing 'Arunachala Magimai' at that time. One day, I said to Maha Periyava that I was unable to locate the house where Sri Seshadri Swamigal lived between 1870 to 1889. Maha Periyava said, "Why don't you take efforts to find the house?" and directed me to various people. The search narrowed down to 2 to 3 houses. It was then I met the old man who built the house where Swamigal lived and he said, "When the eldest son was 19 years he ran away from the house". Then, finally, I located Sri Seshadri Swamigal's house.

Then, when I went to have darshan of Maha Periyava who was at Kollavar Chatram, I briefed Him on the developments. He said, "Shall we buy the house, much like 'Sangeetha Mummoorthigal's' houses have been bought in Thiruvavoor?". We formed a committee, collected money, the house was bought and named as 'Sri Kamakoti Seshadri Swamigal Nivasam'. Maha Periyava then asked for a portrait of Seshadri Swamigal to be kept in the house and Moovalur Gopala Dheekshitar was asked to shift his residence there and do Agni hotram and Ishti homam. Then, under instructions of Maha Periyava, the Aradhana of Swamigal was started in Margazhi Navami.

One day, Maha Periyava drew a plan on the sand at Sivasthanam, Thenambakkam, on how to build a mandap at Swamigal's residence. A trust was formed with Nalli Kuppusamy Chetty, 'Sangupani' Sivraj Mudaliyar, K.R. Visvanathan and I was also a part of it. In 1985, Seshadri Jayanthi was also started in Thai Hastham, again under His instructions. On Jan 21st, 1987 (Thai Hastham) I went to the Mutt to receive Sri Maha Periyava's blessings for the celebrations to go off well and casually mentioned about Unjavarthi that I witnessed at Tiruvaiyaru just a couple of days back, during Thyagaraja Aradhana. Maha Periyava said, "Start Unjavarthi in Seshadri Swamigal Jayanthi too", I said, "Okay, will plan for the next year" "Why next year? Start now". I said, "I do not know anything about Unjavarthi". Maha Periyava showed an old man standing nearby and said, "Ivarukku thalaipagal kattu. Sombu onnu tholla (shoulder) pottuko, and as you go on the street the ladies will put rice in the sombu, collect it and come back. That's all Unjavarthi is all about. 'Bhajanai?'. 'No need for professionals, just the two of you would be enough. 'What to sing?'. Sri Maha Periyava thought for a moment, started putting taalam and began to sing 'Jaya Jaya Jaya Kamakshi, Jaya Jaya Jaya Jaya Kamakoti, Jaya Jaya Jaya Jaya Seshadri'. Just repeat this". The next year, Papanasam Sri Kunjuman Bhagavathar joined us.

One day, when we were talking about the registration of Seshadri Swamigal's house, Maha Periyava asked me, "How many Seshadri's are involved in this?". I said, "four" Maha Periyava said, "five" - "first Seshadri Swamigal, then your friend who is with us now, the advocate who verified the documents, the clerk in the register office and, of course, your father!". Yet another day when I went to Thenambakkam, Maha Periyava sat like Seshadri Swamigal, with legs folded in the same way and his left hand palm holding the chin and asked, "Is this not how He is sitting?". I could not make out any difference between the two of them and tears welled up in my eyes.

It was some time later that Maha Periyava spoke those immortal words, "Will I ever become like Seshadri Swamigal? Will I attain that level?" If Sri Maha Periyava whom all of us know as Sakshath Parameswaran said this of Seshadri Swamigal, at what level must He have been? Brahamananda nilai!

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Hasta Pooja At Andheri

Dear Readers,

The Andheri Pooja is held every month and since past past 10+ years during the Hasta Nakshatram of our Sathguru Sri Seshadri swamigal. We now conduct the pooja from Bindra Complex at the address mentioned in bottom of 1st page. We also carry out Annadanam since over a year from the same location.

Drawing classes: Every Sunday morning, we conduct Drawing class for children as a part of our Serenity activity.

Hasta Pooja At Vashi

The Vashi Pooja is held every 2nd Saturday [9th April 2016] from 6pm at Varasiddhi Vinayaka Temple, Sec 29, Vashi, since the past 5 years! Additionally our Vashi branch also does community services through matchmaking by placing a register containing contact details of prospective grooms & brides of those registered with us. We do not charge for this.

You can partake in our services by initially being a volunteer and if you like what we do, you may decide to join us in the process of bringing about a peace within!

Best wishes!

Surrendered to the Lotus feet

My name is Soundari and my husband's name is Skandan. Sri Seshadri Swamigal comes to us and showers his blessings on us. We took to the guru strongly, after reading the serial article "Arunachala Mahimai" by Sri Baranidharan for nearly 27 years. He has done lots of favours to us and others, whom we had referred to him and he continues to shower his favours to all of us. I have written here about his Grace, to my limited knowledge. Our whole Sesha family may read this and be the recipient of his grace. This is my prayer to the Mahan.

My humble reverence to Mahan Sri Seshadri Swamigal, my mother and father. Sharing Sathguru's experience and leela's in our lives as series.

My elder son's friend was very respectful to us and used to call us aunty and uncle. He was appearing for CA but somehow could not pass the exams. With disappointment he went to Delhi (from Kolkatta) after getting a job. Within few months he met with an accident and got hurt on his thigh. He left his job, came back to Kolkata and was getting treatment from a neurologist. The thigh started shrinking and he could not even get up and was very much worried. Meanwhile his father (a lawyer) got some disease and could not attend to his office work. Their income stopped on top of the medical expenses. His younger brother was studying and younger sister to be married. His family was in deep trouble and he was very sad. My husband gave him a photograph of our Gurunathar and asked him to keep it and pray "Sri Seshadri Baghavan you are my protector" and keep repeating his name. See our Bhagavan's grace; very soon all the family's problems started disappearing. All completed their studies, got married. Now he is in Muscat having a good job. Whenever he wants to start a new thing, without forgetting Bhagavan he comes to our house and gives pranams to Bhagavan and us and takes sacred ash from us.
