KAMESWARI: REIGNS THE VISION WITH A DIVINE MISSION

A visual has a strong impact on us and the influence of visuals could be varied. If the vision by itself were to reign over us, it would be nothing short of a miracle. It would be so astounding that you can call it a world wonder. If one gets to see the visual as a stand-alone, without its influence then it would be an empty scene. If the influence were to take supremacy over the visual impact then it would be an emotional turmoil. Hence one needs a balanced visual and its influence to take over us.

We may tour around to have a taste of various visual delights. For example they could even be a zoo, or a book exhibition or a television or a carnival; these are different sources of entertainment. But these are external scenarios, which have certain limitations. What one needs is an internal visual something so personal that it creates soul-searching experience. An ultimate visual treat will be to see Raja Matangi in all her splendour – the thithiNityadevis are seated in 43 triangles along with 64 Koti Yoginis; Varahi along with Srilakshmi and Srisaraswathi fan her with devotion; at the Chintamani house in the Devaloha, Sadashivan is like the divine seat on whom she is seated; Sadashivan is held as a cot where the four pillars who hold him are Brahma, Rudran, Vishnu and Easan; Vinayaka and Muruga are standing to attention in front of them...Universe's Mother, Adiparashakti, Sri Lalithaparapattarika, the divine queen, the empress, in communion with Kameswaran is present in all her glory. This is an amazing visual which needs to flash past one's mind eye at one's beckoning.

This cannot be externalized in a movie or searched in the internet. Where does one get inspiration for it? Where does one seek? It is a tough call; which path will lead to the true glory of the vision? One's ignorance clouds the choices. Kameswari with her floral arrows will provoke desires within us which would cloud our vision with illusions. She is the one who creates the illusions and the one who clears them too! She evokes fear and then relieves us of it. Every move in the universe is controlled by her. Kameswari's various manifestations are Kamakshi, Meenakshi, Vishalakshi or Neelayadhakshi.

How does one approach her? How does one offer prayers to her? Which process to follow? These were some of the concerns in the minds of the people. That's when Adishankara introduced the Srividya process. He codified it and gave it to the world as an efficient method to pray to her. Through this method it is possible to see the Srichakranayaki as a wondrous mental vision. Mahan SathguruSeshadriSwamigal comes in the lineage of the Srividya worship form; on his divine command Kameswari has been manifested as green granite Mahameru; 18 Siddhars and other gods have been enshrined. We have also managed two kumbabishekams for this temple and all in the witness and presence of Kameswari- she who bears the testimony for it!

One who is true to one's conscience would be able to realize this vision. During NavarathriKameswari is decked up in different forms and along with the 18 siddhars she is present in the shakthipeetam. Let us look at her divine vision and experience the ultimate joy! Let's prosper and grow and be enriched!

Deepavali and Navarathiri wishes and greetings to all!

With blessings

Editor's Desk

Dear Readers,

Festival seasons have started from July like Guru Purnima, Raksha Bandan, Onam, Krishna Jayanti, Ramzan, Ganesh Chaturthi, Navaratri and list goes on... India witnessed a huge success of Mars Orbiter Mission (Mangalayaan), which was successfully entered the Red planet Mar's orbit on 24th September 2014 after 298 days transit to Mars. Our Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi launched the ambitious "Make in India" campaign and the program has designed to transform India into a global manufacturing hub.

Successes or failures, they are the result of one's own actions. In my last editorial, I had mentioned about Karma. In this editorial, I would like to talk about different types of Karma and its causes and effects. The three types of Karma are as below:

- Sanchita Karma – It is the sum of accumulated works from one's past life, whether good or bad follow through the next life.
- Prarabdha Karma - It is the portion of Sanchita Karma which is ripe for reaping and cannot be altered or avoided but can be exhausted by being experienced.
- Agami Karma - It is the present actions, whose fruits will be experienced in the future.

We have quite frequently has this question in our mind as to what type of Prarabdha Karma we are having. Again Prarabdha Karma is again of 3 kinds. They are Ichha (personally desired), Anichha (without desire) and Parechha (due to other's desire). As the saying goes, "As you sow, so shall reap".

So when you do some deeds and the results are not only applicable to you but also to the others connected with you. Sometimes, someone in the family does something wrong for which the entire family is looked down upon. We can overcome the karma by removing I "the ego" that comes between body and self. When there is no 'I', there is no 'Karma'. How to kill ego? The best way to kill ego is to surrender totally to the God and by realizing ones helplessness and keeping 'I' and 'mine' to the God and allow him to do what he wants for you. In short, if Karma is destiny, then to remove the same; complete destroy of ego is necessary to conquer destiny. One can achieve this through "Self Realization" or "Bhakti Marga". Keeping the above all, let us do good deeds, follow good practices and work in Synergy to make our place, surroundings and the world a better place for living.

Children's Series XVIII - Naama Mahimai - Nama Chanting Leads to Salvation

Hi and Hello Dear Little Friends. I always wish to meet you soon but the chance comes only once every three months.

Many great events have taken place at the temple and the month of September and October will see our temple at Madambakkam celebrate Navarathri - The Divine and Delightful Nine Nights dedicated to the Mother Goddess - Sri Lalitha Maha Tripura Sundari. Every Indian here in India as well as overseas celebrate this festival in a grand manner-participating in pujas, keeping fast all these nine days, Chanting the divine name of the Goddess incessantly, participating in Chanting of Sri Lalitha Sahasranama-the thousand names of the Divine Mother. Why should one take the name of the Lord continuously?

Nama Sankeerthanam or Singing the Glory of the Divine Lord and Namasmaramam or Chanting the name of GOD are the two different ways to outreach GOD and get HIS immense blessings. These two are easy ways to reach GOD in these difficult days of Kali yuga and these two easy ways have come down from the very old purana days where we have examples of many great Bhaktas or Devotees who have attained the Lotus Feet of the Lord. Hari namam is the way of getting rid of all our problems with ease.

The big advantage of Namasankeerthanam is that it has no rules and regulations to abide and you can say His name whenever you want and where ever you want. Even at home, if you want to worship god in your pooja room, you have to follow certain rules like those that you should bathe. In Namasmaramam, even this rule is not applicable. HE expects nothing from you except Love. Don't think, you should go to a lonely place, sit, and do Japam. You are permitted to chant His name at your pace... when going to office, while cooking ...even at bed. Anybody can say at any time.

In any event of this nature, Bhava Bhakthi is very important. GOD loves you irrespective of your action towards HIM and takes care of you always. But if you make HIM your family member- Friend, mother, father, guru, and child whatever you want and love GOD, HE too loves you back vehemently. This is what is called Bhava Bhakthi. Prayers of this stature helps you to converse with HIM very easily and HE responds to you readily. For instance if you are very attached to a member of your family, you would love to repeat his name and relate to him in different ways and be overwhelmed to talk about him and mere thoughts of that particular person will fill your heart with joy. I hope I am right and request you to replace that loved person's name with the Lord's name. Practice this incessantly and definitely GOD will sit by your side always. This I can explain to you better with a little story which must have been told by your elders in the family.

Naarada - The roving Saint with a Tumbhura (a musical instrument) and the name of Lord Narayana on his lips and going round this three worlds, is one of the Seven Rishis (Saptha Rishi) greatly adored and is always referred as a great Bhaktha. But do all of us know why he is chanting "Om Namo Narayana" incessantly and how he came about chanting this name?

One day Naraada came to Vaikunta-the abode of the Lord Vishnu and found the Lord resting on the Serpent Adishesha with his consort Lakshmi by his lotus feet. He addressed Lord Vishnu-"Oh Dear Lord, one who is indweller in the souls(Parabrahma Swaroopa), please let me know why people go about chanting your name incessantly and what is so great in your name?"

Lord chuckled mischievously and said," Naarada, instead of telling you greatness of Nama why don't you test it yourself. Go to Bhooloka(Earth) and go to southern end wherein you will find a forest and tell the Maha Mantra to the worm resting on a leaf in there."

Naarada immediately departed to the forest pointed out by Lord Vishnu to him and saw the worm moving about the leaf. He went near and said "Om Namo Narayana". The moment Naarada uttered the mantra the worm fell down in the ground and died. Naarada was perplexed and went seeking Lord Vishnu in Vaikunta. He said," What is this my dear Lord...Is this the greatness of your hearing your name uttered, that the worm had to lose its' life?"

Smilingly the Lord replied," Oh Dear Naarada, now once again immediately depart to Mother Earth where you will find a Cow giving birth to a Calf. Please tell my name to the newborn calf."

Naarada reached the place directed by the Lord and saw the cow giving birth to the calf. He went ahead and uttered "Om Namo Narayana" to the newborn calf and to his utter dismay, the calf dropped dead. Naarada was overcome with remorse as it is deemed sinful to kill a cow and more so to kill a newborn calf, just born a few moments back. He went running back to Vaikunta and said, "Oh my dear Lord, I have committed a greatest sin of cow slaying. The calf dropped dead when I uttered your divine name. What is this great game?"

Vishnu asked Naarada not to be perturbed and asked him to immediately leave for Bhooloka and repeat HIS name to a child playing with a doll. But Naarada was very jittery to do this lest that Child too drop dead. But on being pushed by Lord Vishnu, Naarada reached Earth and found the child playing with the doll as stated by Vishnu. Naarada went near the child and said, "Om Namo Narayana" and what Naarada dreaded happened. The Child too dropped dead. Naarada was in total anguish and was so upset with Lord Vishnu as to why the Lord was playing with his life by making Naarada do such sinful acts. So Soon he rushed back to Sri Vaikunta and found the Lord resting on the serpent bed and with his consort Lakshmi pressing his lotus feet lovingly and with a Sage sitting in front of them. The Lord Vishnu asked, "Naarada What happened to you? Why are you so agitated?"

Naarada before asking his doubt to the Lord looked confusingly at the Sage sitting in front of the Lord's resting place and addressed Lord. "Dear Lord, what is this test? Wherever and whenever I repeated your Maha Mantra, all those living beings on hearing the same died on the spot. Is your name so harsh or is the way I chanted was wrong?" Lord Vasudeva (another name for Lord Vishnu) said, "Naarada, What you say must have some substance. Why don't you repeat that Maha Mantra in front of me." Naarada drawing some courage, with eyes closed, said, "Om Namo Narayana". When Naarada opened his eyes, he found the Sage who was sitting in front of the lord lying dead. Naarada cried aloud and pleaded to Lord Vishnu to explain these disastrous events.

Lord Vishnu said, "Naarada, you an embodiment of Bhakthi, understand this. Chanting my name gives Mukthi / Salvation immediately. The Sage whom you saw sitting in front of me was a Worm, a newborn Calf and a small Kid in his earlier births. I asked you to utter that Maha Mantra in front of the Sage too, only to give him salvation. That Sage too reached me after hearing the mantra. Remember this Dear Naarada, if this mere hearing of the nama can give one salvation, what can one achieve by chanting this nama? I just used you as an instrument to show the whole world, what Namasmaramam can do to all. If it can give the Listener / hearer Mukthi, please remember what one can gain by chanting this incessantly.

Naarada realized this immediately and He has since then not stopped chanting, " Om Namo Narayana " " Om Namo Narayana " " Om Namo Narayana ". Listen carefully with your inner ear- you can listen to Naarada chanting this Maha Mantra while playing his tambhura. Now remember that you too have chanted this Maha Mantra unknowingly without you realizing while reading this story and have embarked in the path of self realization / Mukthi. Not only this leads your own self to greater height but also lifts the articles surrounding you always too to greater heights.

So start today chanting the name of the Lord. Jai Jai Sathguru Sri Seshadri Sathguru. May the Lord bless you all ever.

Now is the time to learn a simple sloka. We will learn today Sri Rama's Sloka - one who is dwelling at Madambakkam with his consort and brother and Bhaktha Anjaneya. Chant HIS name incessantly and soon HE will start dwelling in your hearts too. Now the sloka:

महारत्नपीठे शुभे कल्पमूले
सुखासीनमादित्यकोटिप्रकाशम् ।
सदा जानकीलक्ष्मणोपेतमेकं
सदा रामचंद्रं भजेऽहं भजेऽहं ॥

maha rathna pITE shubhE kalpa mUIE, sukAsInaM Adhitya kOTI prakAsam,
sada jAnakI lakshmaNOpethaM EkaM,
sada rAmachandram bhajEhaM,
bhajEhaM.

महारत्नपीठे = On a great gem-studded throne,
शुभे कल्पमूले = Under the most auspicious kalpavriksha, (the celestial wish-fulfilling tree)
सुखासीनम् = seated comfortably,
आदित्यकोटिप्रकाशम् = with the effulgence of millions of Suns,
सदा जानकीलक्ष्मणोपेतमेकं = ever accompanied by jaanakii (siita) and lakshmana,
एकं = one without a second,
सदा = Always,
रामचंद्रं = Sri Raamachandra (His face compared to the poetically cool moon),
भजेऽहं = I worship.
I worship Sri Ramachandra, who is seated comfortably on a great gem-studded throne under the most auspicious kalpavriksha. He shines with the effulgence of millions of Suns, ever accompanied by His consort Sita and brother Lakshmana. I forever adore Sri Rama - who is One without a second (ekamevAdvitiya).
Time has now come to say goodbye now. Bye and Bye and sweet kisses my dear little Kutti friends.

- Seshadri Mama.

Siddhar Series-13

Epitome of Spiritual Wisdom - Azhugani Siddhar

Among the mystic masters, in the world of Siddhar, Azhugani Siddhar is well known for the powers he achieved and for his use of those powers for the uplift of mankind, especially through his songs, medicine and yogic strengths. Man, from times immemorial, has been in a chase to find the unknown. It is said mankind can find the God, the power or energy outside or in the realms beyond the universe –or more so 'within,' coming under the grace of Immortal Siddhars. So, one has to seek the meaning of the songs of the Siddhars, especially of the cryptic ones of the Mystic Azhugani Siddhar. He symbolizes the Divine within us as 'Kannamma - the dear child,' and personifying the Kundalini Shakti.

Azhugani Siddhar hailed from an agricultural family and it was natural that he preaches and does weeding of the unwanted among the crops. In his songs too, he implores the cleansing of the mind, weeding wrong and wicked thoughts, so that life becomes meaningful. He exposed the uselessness of the worldly life, its impermanence and guided the mankind with emphasis on a righteous way that leads one high on the spiritual attainment. He suggested strengthening the body with proper and rare herbs like Azhuganni and Thozhuganni, adding a long span for one's life. With such inherent powers, he overcame the disability of the body, mastered the ability of swapping bodies at will and transmigrated in different forms seen and unseen to various parts in the country. His mastery over the language helped him compose allegoric songs that highlighted medicine, spirituality and yogic powers. In view of the beauty (Azhugu) and its embellishments (Ani), his songs are immortal and he became Azhugani Siddhar. As he was compassionate, tears rolled out of his eyes all the time, earning him an epithet as saint with 'Azhuginna Kanneer' - (tearful eyes). This reflected his love for humanity and his tender heart yearning for their welfare. He indicated use of Yogic Power to attain well being in life, by tapping resources within. This he put in words in his poem Kallitthaazhisai 32 thus:

Muthu Mugappadiyo Muchhandhi Veedyile, Patthaam Idazh Parappi Panjanaiyin Meliruthi, Atthai Yadakki Nilai Aarumilla Velaiyile, Kutthu Vilakkettri, Yen Kannamma! Kolamittup Paareno?

It means that we can realize the Kundalini Shahti with meditation and concentration. See its rise before one's eye and bring in to beget its unlimited mystic powers. As if addressing the child Kammamma (Kundalini), he tells the mind to grab the opportunity for elevation.

In order to begin with our efforts in our spiritual path, let's invoke the great Azhugani Siddhar with his dhyana sloka, following:

Maaya Mayakkam Neekki Kaaya Kalpam Thedi Azhuganni Mooligaiyai Arulia Aanma Siddhare!

Emm Oozhvinai Aada Umm Kazhal Piditthuk Kidandhom - Manak Kalakkam Neekki Magizhchi

Arulvaai Azhugani Siddhare! - This means that

"Come in refuge to Him, to dispel the confusion, remove the delusion and envision the happiness".

So let's pray. In a serene place with sacred atmosphere, Sri Azhugani Siddhar, who manifests Raahu navagraha, is worshipped especially on a Saturday, with his image duly mounted and decorated on a wooden platform smeared with turmeric, painted with kolams, and with fragrant garlands and flowers; He is adorned with black clothes; offered archana with Jasmine, Tulasi, as also Vibhuti or kadir pachai, Thazhampu and lotus flowers.; Placed around altar are brilliantly lighted lamps, -called 'kutthuvilakku,' symbolizing the rise and spread of wisdom. Also this signifies the thought of sharing like light. This also means paying obeisance to Raahu, or the Naaga Dev, whom Azhugani Siddhar represents. The Siddhar's Pooja helps in earning rare benefits and more boons. The worship dispels any negativity or malefic influence of various kinds, including that caused by the navagrahas, especially Raahu. Chanting the sacred '16 Pottrigal,' and then reciting with the Moola mantra, "Om Vasi Azhugani Siddhare Pottri," a 108 times, the Siddhar is offered clean water that is used for washing rice four times and draining it out. Of course the offerings include other items like fruits and flowers. The worship is concluded with the Deepa Aaradhana, the lighting of the lamp, camphor and incenses and falling at the feet of the Azhugani Siddhar (prostration) with intense faith seeking his blessings. This removes the troubles one faces and surely brings peace, progress and prosperity.

He is a Siddhar, who likes and adores Lord Krishna. As a mystic, he seeks and worships Lord Shiva and therefore revels in the "Linga Darshanam" (visualizes Shiva in the form of staff). Further his Siddhi (accomplishment) enables and empowers him to witness the Tripura, the abode of Goddess. He is regarded as the son of Lopamudra. He resides at the Trikoodam and lives within the Bheeja Akshara mantra "Vasi" (within the breath and sound of Vasi)

As we worship, he indicates his likings or longings for us to offer – that He loves bathing (snaana priya). He drinks milk and partakes fruits. He likes the adoration and decoration with Mooligai (herbs and sacred plants). No wonder, He bestows wisdom. He grants his grace to the farmers and agriculturalists. Also, He protects the serpents, while He destroys the troubles and travails and He, therefore, removes the mental oscillation or tribulation that is root cause of our sufferings. Pray unto HIM, the delightful Siddhar, for he is the Master who grants us peace and power. He is just waiting for us at the Shakti Peedam for Sri Chakra Mahameru Roopa Lalitha Maha Tripura Sundari, flanked by Sri Seshadri Swamigal and others of the Padinen Siddhars at Madambakkam, near the Sri Kapila Theertham of the Dhenu Puriswarar Temple, close to Selaiyur in Tambaram, Chennai A visit is due any day but the Sankalpam for the prayer to Sri Azhugani Siddhar starts today.
