CONSCIENCE IS A MAGIC WAND

Human life comprises three components- 'mantra, yantra and tantra'. We blame very many things and claim that we have lost our peace of mind due to some of the following events in our lives....like the husband yells at his wife or the wife hits her husband; the children do not focus on their studies or they do not follow the instructions of their parents; teachers and professors criticize their students; the employees oppose their employers; when one doesn't beget children; if someone pilfers our hard earned money; or a grievous fatal accident happens; or if what we desire and expect is not fulfilled. Is this grievance felt by the mind or conscience? Where is one's mind? Could it be in the hand, legs, heart, face or any other part - is the biggest question posed in front of us? When someone indulges in any of the deadly sins such as killing, raping, stealing of gold, or being treacherous to the Guru, we ask this person - does he have a conscience or not? At the same time we also ask as to how he could have the mind to do such a thing. So only when the mind and the conscience function together human life gathers momentum. The good and bad deeds are reflected as a consequence; it is a difficult puzzle and we are unable to unravel how to lead a life which is disciplined, truthful, fair and that which is just.

When a battle between the mind and the conscience occurs we are confused, tempted and stressed. The result is one falls sick; with no scope for answers or relief. It is precisely at this juncture that the devastated mind seeks some kind of intervention and guidance. It is made possible through 'mantra, yantra or tantra'. We need the enlightenment of the Sathguru with a touch of the divinity to guide them through the why, what, where, and when of life. The relationship between a Guru and a disciple is pure, holy and soulful. There is no place for commercialism, compulsion or pressure in this relationship. This is where the role of conscience plays a significant role. Persons with conscience would understand how the Guru saved them from rotting; we also understand how He guided us, elevated us to impart character in us and made us realise the good from the bad lead a comfortable life in this world.

We need to repeatedly think of this; we need to dig deep down and analyse this. True disciples should be sincere students and should implement the commands of the Sathguru in right earnest like trained soldiers. If they behave like this the Sathguru will be so immeasurably happy and delighted; then a million obstacles will be removed. The sins of the previous birth would be extracted like weeds. Life will be sanctified. The conscience will gain the divine grace, through which the heart will reveal the soul, leading to salvation. He will be blessed to have the darshan of the feet of the Lord, who is the Wheel of Dharma personified; as stated in the Bhagavad Gita, without asking questions or getting confused, one should surrender unquestioningly at the feet of Sathguru. If one does that, one would then be undoubtedly blessed with a rare and precious opportunity of having the enlightened Sathguru as one's conscience; wield it like the magic wand to gain all prosperity and cheers in life. This opportunity awaits us on January 12, 13, 14, - 2015.

Come one and all! Let's surrender and be relieved of troubles!

Greetings & Blessings For The New Year 2015

EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Readers,

A year has passed by and it's already time for a review!! When I look up on my last year, it was good and all the trying times that we had faced last to last year passed over. It is the time now to express gratitude to our Sathguru for various happenings of our life. We at SSSSBT trust bring in our New Year with an auspicious note with Sathguru Araadhana celebrations for three days from 12th to 14th Jan 2015 at the Shakti Peedam at Madambakkam.. Sathguru Araadhana is the best opportunity for all his disciples and devotees to give back to the beloved Sathguru. Special Havans like Maha Navagraha Shanthi Ayush Havan and Maha Mrutyunjaya Nakshatra Havan have been scheduled at the Chennai Shrine. Our trust's current project on hand is to build a secured Goshala for cows. Bhagavad Geeta tells us about the importance of being in "Satva Guna." Satva Guna brings us peace and happiness and worshiping cow increases our satva guna. Readers can have a view of the current Go Shala picture and the proposed Go Shala picture in this issue. We are raising funds for renovating the Go Shala through our Annual events.

The highlight in the year 2014 is about the working of the Mumbai Trust's office at the new location from June 2014 and activities gaining full force since our Guruji's visit in October 2014. We have since started some activities for children like drawing class. We are regularly conducting our Sathguru's Hastha Nakshatra puja here in a grand manner. Some pictures are given in this issue. During the recent New Moon day, we got the message from Sathguru that he keeps coming to our Mumbai trust office and is blessing us all. Our Sathguru is omnipresent and can be at various places at any time. He can come in any form - as the fragrance of flowers, vibhuti, fire or wind! We are truly blessed thus. We request all of you to be the recipients of His blessings. We are very proud to announce that the Mumbai Chapter would be conducting its 10th Annual havan on February 15, 2015 under the leadership of our beloved Guruji Sri K V L N Sharma and with guidance and blessings of our Sathguru Sri Seshadri Swamigal. The havan program includes Sri Lakshmi Kubera Dhana Akarshana puja and havan as also Sri Kamadhenu puja and havan. The havan related details are given in this issue. May we request you all to take this golden opportunity of participating in the havans and get the bountiful

Thirunallaru Sani Bhagawan Stops All Satellites And Signals For Three Seconds

When artificial satellites cross the space over India at certain spots, they slowed down for three seconds (later it was found by scientists of NASA that it was space above the Sani (Saturn) Bhagawan temple at Thirunallaru, Nagai district of Tamil Nadu). Scientists were astonished and found that some rays FROM SPACE fell on the temple regularly, and ON the time/DAY of Saturn's transit more dense rays fell on the temple. The colour of the rays is nearly black (Colours are associated with each of the navagrahas (planets) in our temples and for Sani Bhagawan, it is black) As the satellites which are crossing that space passed the rays, they moved slow for three seconds but there was no damage to their functioning.

A few years ago US sent a satellite which kept revolving round our globe and whenever it crossed space right above the spot of Thirunallaru (East Coast Divine place of Tamil Nadu) it staggered and moved forward very slowly for a while! NASA observed it and was puzzled! It is also said that during the Sani - Peyarchi, -Transit of Saturn- a sacred festival of this place, say once in 30 months, very dense UV rays fell from the Space over this place of the shrine. It was also noticed that there was always a greater flow of UV rays around this temple, compared to the quota received by any other part on our earth, and during the said festival the density gets more! No explanations from the Scientists. Just accept it as a miracle.

Now let me share my experience at our 18 siddhar universal shrine at Madambakkam on 16th Dec 2014, the day on which Sanipeyarchi Havan was performed under the guidance of Guruji KVLN Sharmaji

We normally don't allow public to use phones/photography when such functions are held at our shrine. I was as taking pictures from my mobile phone to cover the poojas performed at the shrine for Saneeswara Bhagawan, to later use for posting in facebook and other Media. When the Poomahuthi was done to Saneeswara bhagwan by Guruji KVLN Sharmaji, my mobile phone turned blank and the screen was black, I tried several times to shoot picture properly but still the screen remained blank and black ; I got a message in my phone " sorry system does not support "

It was then that I realized that the strong UV rays of Saneeswara bhagwan also worked at our Universal Padinen (18) Siddhar shrine; He had come really to bless us all. God comes in the form of light or invisible rays and through positive vibrations, which we could here realize and enjoy. Come here to the Shakti Peedam at Madambakkam. You will feel blessed at our Universal 18 Siddhar shrine, as you worship SRI KAPILAR SIDDHAR and SRI KARUVOORAR SIDDHAR representing the Saturn planet.

LET GO - LET'S GO

Hi and Hello Dear little friends. It is a great pleasure to be talking to you again and I yearn as much as yourself to be in constant touch with all of you. But it cannot be as we are able to see each other only after a gap of three months.

Many a great events have taken place in our temple like Deepavali, Skanda Shasti, Sani Peyarchi or Transit of Saturn, Hanuman Jayanthi etc. All have been celebrated in a great fashion at our temple.

Today let's discuss about Peace, Love, Happiness and Attachment. As Dalai Lama Says. "Most of our troubles are due to our passionate desire for and attachment to things that we misapprehend as enduring entities".

If there is one thing we all have in common it's that we want to feel happy; and on the other side of a coin, we want to avoid hurting. Yet we put ourselves consistently in situations that set up for pain.

We are constantly searching for true values. In consciousness we mistakenly think that the physical world and physical relations can provide us peace, love and happiness. However peace, love and happiness are not the properties of matter, nor of the physical identity, but the true properties or characteristics of the soul. This has to be realized. We pin our happiness to people, circumstances, and things and hold onto them for dear life. Imagine a scene in which you are surrounded by all your favourite things: food, music, fragrance, scenery and companions. Just about to enjoy your meal, the telephone rings and you are told that a person close to you has just died. Instantly, that scene of "favourites" melts into a distasteful and superficial experience. Something has happened that shakes the soul and it can no longer enjoy those things. At the same time it finds itself powerless in the face of the bad news as understanding and power are missing. Life is full of experiences such as this and it becomes clear that physical things are not the sources of peace, love and happiness, but that understanding and inner strength are. We stress about the possibility of losing them when something seems amiss. Then we melt into grief when something leaves us or we do not achieve a particular thing. A Loved thing when shared or handed over to others gives us contentment, peace and happiness.

One of the basic facts of human psychology is that we do not seek or desire something that has not been experienced previously. For example, if one has never tasted a pineapple, there cannot be a burning desire to have one. This suggests that desires might be arising from previous life experiences. In fact, it is impossible for a human being to act or desire outside the field of his or her own experience. The search for peace, love and happiness is so fundamental to the human spirit because these are the original and true qualities of the soul itself.

Are you holding onto things which God wants you to let go of?

Are you holding onto harmful or unnecessary partners, relationships, habits and activities which you have become so attached to that it seems impossible to let go?

I will explain this better with a simple and sweet story that has been making rounds for a very very long time.

Rani was a bright-eyed, pretty five-year-old girl.

One day when she and her mother were checking out at the grocery store, Rani saw a plastic pearl necklace priced at Rs 25. How she wanted that necklace and when she asked her mother if she would buy it for her, her mother said, "Well, it is a pretty necklace, but it costs an awful lot of money. I'll tell you what. I'll buy you the necklace, and when we get home we can make up a list of chores that you can do to pay for the necklace. And don't forget that for your birthday Grandma just might give you a whole ten rupee note, too. Okay?"

Rani agreed, and her mother bought the pearl necklace for her. Rani worked on her chores very hard every day, and sure enough, her Grandma gave her a brand new ten rupee note for her birthday. Soon Rani had paid off the pearls.

How Rani loved those pearls. She wore them everywhere to kindergarten, school, bed, and when she went out with her mother to run errands. The only time she didn't wear them was in the shower - her mother had told her that they would turn her neck green. Now Rani had a very loving daddy. When Rani went to bed, he would get up from his favorite chair every night and read Rani her favorite story. One night when he finished the story, he said, "Rani, do you love me?"

"Oh yes, Daddy, you know I love you," the little girl said.

"Well, then, give me your pearls."

"Oh! Daddy, not my pearls!" Rani said. "But you can have Rosie, my favorite doll. Remember her? You gave her to me last year for my birthday. And you can have her tea party outfit, too. Okay?"

"Oh no, darling, that's okay." Her father brushed her cheek with a kiss. "Good night, little one."

A week later, her father once again asked Rani after her story, "Do you love me?"

"Oh yes, Daddy, you know I love you."

"Well, then, give me your pearls."

"Oh, Daddy, not my pearls! But you can have Ribbons, my toy horse. Do you remember her? She's my favorite. Her hair is so soft, and you can play with it and braid it and everything. You can have Ribbons if you want her, Daddy," the little girl said to her father.

"No, that's okay," her father said and brushed her cheek again with a kiss. "God bless you, little one. Sweet dreams."

Several days later, when Rani's father came in to read her a story, Rani was sitting on her bed and her lip was trembling. "Here, Daddy," she said, and held out her hand. She opened it and her beloved pearl necklace was inside. She let it slip into her father's hand. With one hand her father held the plastic pearls and with the other he pulled out of his pocket a blue velvet box.

Inside of the box were real, genuine, beautiful pearls.

He had them all along. He was waiting for Rani to give up the cheap stuff so he could give her the real thing. So it is with our Heavenly Father. He is waiting for us to give up the cheap things in our lives so that he can give us beautiful treasure. Isn't God great and good?

Sometimes it is so hard to see what is in the other hand but do believe this one thing.....

God will never take away something without giving you something better in its place.

"One who is unaffected by things that elicit attachment, un-angered by things that produce irritation, unworried by things that cause distress will leave unhappiness behind and dwell in peace. Understanding the reality of impermanence does away with desire - for material possessions, for sensual pleasure, for existence and eliminates attachment".

Lord Buddha says, "To be free from suffering, free yourself from attachments".
bye till we meet next.

Now is the time to learn sloka of Lord Krishna who is very dear to our Sathguru :
SRIVATSANGAM MAHORASKAM VANAMALA VIRAJITHAM, SANKUCHAKRA DHARAM DEVAM KRISHNAM VANDE JAGATHGURUM
" Meaning "

I salute Lord Krishna, the universal preceptor, who has a broad chest with a srivatsa mark, who wears the vana-mala garland and who hold a conch and a discus.

Divine Intervention

In the month of May 2014, we were privileged and blessed to have our Guruji at our home at Vashi. In one of the rooms, where Guruji stayed for the night, there were pictures of 18 Siddhars with Mahameru, Gruhalakshmi and Sathguru Seshadri Swamigal. Next day morning when Guruji was in the living room, I happened to enter the room where Guruji had slept. I had experienced some vibrations coming from the entire siddhars picture and Mahameru was seen glittering for a fraction of second. I immediately conveyed the same to Guruji and he blessed us all.

On 7th November 2014, again we had an opportunity to welcome home our Guruji. He visited to bless our granddaughter Sahaama and had stayed for the night and left for Andheri on the next day. We had earlier shifted all the pictures to our puja room. On 9th November morning, when I was performing puja of Ganapathy followed by Shri Dakshinamurthy, my legs became very warm from knee to foot for a fraction of a second. Heat subsided after I completed the puja in about 10 minutes. I shared this experience with Guruji and he blessed me and had asked me to share it to all through Sri Ssha Oli and here is the joyful experience we had. All the above experiences only prove that, when we totally surrender to our Ishta Devata and our Sathguru, we are bound to get such divine interventions which give immense, happiness and peace!!

Mathematics in Chamakam - A Vedic chant

Mathematics is a part of our daily life in several ways. Hence, it is no wonder that it has come to occupy an important place in religious rituals also. This is what we find particularly in the Hindu way of life or the Hindu religion.

Worshippers of Lord Siva recite Rudram with 11 sections followed by Chamakam with 11 sections as a routine prayer every day. This is called the daily nyasam or mode of worship. In the Rudram part, the devotee pays repeated obeisance to Lord Siva and prays for his blessings for human well being. But on special occasions, the number of times the recitation is done is increased.

In Rudra Ekadasi, Rudram is recited 11 times and Chamakam is recited once. After Rudram is recited once, one section or anuvaka of Chamakam is recited in order. In Laghu rudram, Rudra Ekadasi is done 11 times, that is, Rudram is recited 112 or 121 times and Chamakam is recited 11 times. In Maharudram, 11 Laghurudrams are recited; that is, Rudram is recited 113 = 1331 times and Chamakam 112 = 121 times.

In Atirudram, 11 Maharudrams are recited; that is, Rudram is recited 114 = 14641 times and Chamakam is recited 113 = 1331 times.

The Chamakam mentions completely the ideal of human happiness and defines in the highest degree the desires to be fulfilled without delimiting those to be asked for or to be granted.

In the Chamakam, in anuvakas or sections 1 to 10, the devotee prays for almost everything needed for human happiness and specifies each item. But in the 11th anuvaka or 11th section of Chamakam, the devotee prays for the desired things not specifically but in terms of numbers, first in terms of odd numbers from 1 to 33 and later in multiples of 4 from 4 to 48, as follows:

"Eka cha me, thisrascha may, pancha cha may, sapta cha may, Ekadasa cha may, trayodasa cha may, panchadasa cha may, saptadasa cha may, Navadasa cha may, ek trimshatis cha may, trayovimshatis cha may, Panchavimshatis cha may, saptavimshatis cha may, navavimshatis cha may, Ekatrimshatis cha may, trayatrimshatis cha may, panchatrimshatis cha may, Chatasras cha may, ashtou cha may, dwadasa cha may, shodasa cha may, Vimsatis cha may, chaturvimshatis cha may, ashtavimshatis cha may, Dwathrimashatis cha may, shatstrimshas cha may, chatvarimshas cha may, Chatuschatvarimshas cha may, ashtachatvarimshas cha may"

which means:

"Let these be granted to me. One, three, five, seven, nine, eleven, thirteen, seventeen, nineteen, twenty one, twenty three, twenty five, twenty seven, twenty nine, thirty one and thirty three as also four, eight, twelve, sixteen, twenty, twenty four, twenty eight, thirty two, thirty six, forty, forty four and forty eight".

Traditional scholars and pandits explain the significance of these numbers as follows:

ODD NUMBERS:

1 = Nature or Prakriti

3 = The three gunas, namely sattwa, rajas and tamas

5 = The five mahabhutas, or the five basic elements, that is, prithvi, ap, tejas, vayu and akasha, (earth, water, energy or agni or fire, wind and space).

7 = The five sensory organs and the mind and intellect

9 = The nine openings in the human body, called the navadwaras.

11 = The ten pranas and the Sushumna nadi

13 = Thirteen Devas

15 = The nadis or nerve centres in the human body

17 = The limbs of the human body

19 = Medicinal herbs

21 = Important vulnerable parts of the body

23 = Devas controlling serious diseases

25 = Apsaras in heaven

27 = Gandharvas

29 = Vidyut Devas

31 = Worlds

33 = Devas

MULTIPLES OF FOUR:

4 = The four ideals of human life, namely dharma, artha, kama and moksha,

(righteous way of life, wealth, desire, and salvation)

8 = The four Vedas and the four upavedas

12 = Six vedangas and six shastras.

16 = Knowledge to be obtained from God

20 = The Mahabhutas

24 = The number of letters in the Gayatri metre

28 = The number of letters in the Ushnik metre

32 = The number of letters in the Anushtup metre

36 = The number of letters in the Brihati metre

40 = The number of letters in the Pankti metre

44 = The number of letters in the Trushtup metre

48 = The number of letters in the Jagati metre

One great scholar says these numbers represent a polymer chain of molecules that form apa or water that enables evolution of life and intelligence, and apa is nothing but the nitrogenous base pairs of the DNA. The numbers 1 to 33 represent the 33000 base pairs of mitochondrial base pairs of DNA. The numbers 4 to 48 represent the 48 million nuclear bases of DNA. The two sets of DNA bases combine to provide sustenance of human wellbeing and onward evolution of human life. When the devotee prays for the blessing of these numbers,

Lead Kindly Light - Pray To Kudhambai Siddhar Bright

Many are the strange ways of the accomplished masters to help the mankind out of its mostly self inflicted miseries, at times not even being aware of it! It is their lasting compassion, like the Universal Mother coming to the succor of the crying child and catering to its typical wants. Yet we do not recognize them, do not revere them and very badly, even do not remember them. That is why say they it enough to worship one's mother! The mystic masters come to us as our mother would and as we learn to revere our mother, we come to understand the prowess of the sddhars. This is what Kudhambai Siddhar does when he poses us with cryptic questions as to the purpose of our lives and gives us the solution too! In his inimitable style, he addresses us a Kudhambai, a child wearing a beautiful ear ornament, to impart his divine message through the collection of songs, under the titles- Kudhambai Gnaana Soothiram and Kudhambai Siddhar Paadalgal. He transmits cosmic content and graces to us to improve our lives and follow the lead by the light of wisdom soaked in his songs.

In order that we start acquiring the meaning of life and thereafter practicing it, we need to invoke Sri Kudhambai Siddhar's presence and benevolence. Here is the Dhyana Sloka for the Smarana and Samarpana - from intent, interest to ultimate surrender in the application of the Bhakti Yoga - in remembering The Siddha Parusha) :-

Soolam Yendhiya Sundara Moorthiyel
Athimaram Amarnthu
Aayasiddhi Anathum Petra Sathiya
Siddhare!

Kumbitta Emakku Nambikkayudan
Nallasi Tharuvai Kudhambai
Perumane

When we worship the Siddhar in adoration and reverence, we will start realizing his impact in our lives. To elevate us spiritually, give us both "Tha and Para sukha," and make us worthy persons on this earth, we seek HIM in refuge. In a serene place, which heightens the ambience with sacredness and invigorates the solemnity of the atmosphere, one must worship with a clean body and calm mind, Sri Kudhambai Siddhar, especially on a Friday; mount His image on a decorated deck smeared with turmeric, and kumkum. The altar is painted with kolams, which make the deity stand out in majesty. The sanctity is enhanced with fragrant garlands and flowers, He is adorned with multi-coloured clothes; offered archana with Jathi pushpam, Vrichi flowers, Thulasi, Kadir or Vibhuti Pachai and Vilvam leaves. Our mind also is lured by the brilliance of the lighted lamps. Doing pooja for Sri Kudhambai Siddhar means paying obeisance also to Ketu, the south lunar node, whom the Siddhar represents. This Siddhar's Pooja is sure to help one earning rare benefits and more boons and dispelling any negativity or malefic influence of various kinds, including that caused by the navagrahas, especially Ketu.

In his song, addressing the child, He surmises thus "When you have realized the Leading Lord and have merged as one into his Divine Being, Oh! Kudhambai, why do you need a following?

Thannai Arindhu Thalaivanai
Sernthaarkku Pinnaasai Yedukkadi?
Kudhambai, pinnaasai yedukkadi?

How did he acquire such philosophical wisdom that worldly men find elusive? That was his enlightened Master's grace who appeared before him to reveal his previous birth particulars, secrets, powers as also the mission ahead. He was earlier born in the Yadava community (of cow herds) and was elated with his handsomeness enhanced by the wearing of Kudhambai (ear ornament, usually worn by the girls). Being a simple person, he went about his life and beautiful appearances, but went on to turn a new leaf in his life, fired by the divine instructions imparted to him by the ascetic of supernatural powers and became his Guru. He came to know that his previous life came to an end before he could gain the benefits of his prayers, penance and perseverance of a meditative excellence. It now blossomed forth with his Guru's grace and wisdom to experiment, and experience for an existence of supremely sublime immortality! Abandoning home, He tried this upon himself by moving into the forest and seating in the hole of an Athi Tree (Fig tree) to record his feelings and findings of empirical experimentation into majestic philosophical songs, lofty in ideas and yet appealingly simple and sweet to capture the minds of lay persons drawn to him. He continues to bless the devotees from Mayiladuthurai, where he attained Samadhi (liberation)

In this earth, we seek the divine and we feel blessed as the Siddhar Himself manifests for us mortals. Kudhambai Siddhar himself worships Lord Shiva; and He is the embodiment of the divine light, the Jyothi Swaroopam. As a result He appears emblazoned with the dazzling effulgence of Shiva. The Siddhar resides and resonates in the Bheejaakshara of Omkaram and he rises as the Divine One, who offers refuge to all and is worshipped by the celestials, angels devathas and mortals alike. He likes the adornment with Vibhuti, smeared with sacred ash. He revels in Naatyaa, deeply fond of Dance. He represents and is endowed with the purity of the heart. The Kudhambai Siddhar is renowned for with words and its wonders, with which He is steadfast. He rejoices and excels in Hata Yoga and is always present to protect us with Soolayudam, the spear. For the debilitated, disabled or the deprived, He is the saviour to help and protect. He endows us with wisdom and liberation (that connects the cosmic world) while He also grants us the boon of knowledge, (to survive in this world). He is none other than the Supreme Swami (Master) Sri Kudhambai Siddhar, who presents us with all auspiciousness and also showers us with prosperity and peace. As we pray, the brightness of Sri Kudhambai Siddhar begets us the Light Divine within and shows us the path for the pilgrims we are.

When we sincerely worship him, we find mental peace dawning on us, expelling fear, mental complexes, and anxieties. Mental retardation is cured while problems related brain, hallucination, blood clots or phobias are solved. Students show memory improvement with clarity in thoughts and action. Addictions of various kinds, impediments in life, Kethu's influences affecting marriage, progeny or other issues are removed. Above all, spiritual progress steers us through matters of life with wisdom of the Kudhambai Siddhar, guiding us ahead. Wishes of the devotees are fulfilled as the Kudhambai Siddhar blesses the devout for their steadfastness with his protective presence. So hail the Siddhar, whose worship only entails benediction all around!
